STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~
ORDER FOR CONDITIONAL DISMISSAL

Complaint Filed: June 13, 2006
 Trial Date: None (vacated)

STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER FOR
 CONDITIONAL DISMISSAL
 Case No. C-06-03749 JSW

On August 13, 2010, the parties informed the Court that they had reached settlement of the captioned action following mediation. The parties have since been working diligently and in good faith to memorialize the settlement.

At a September 17, 2010 status conference, the Court proposed that the parties stipulate to a conditional dismissal of this action pending finalization of the settlement documents. The parties accordingly stipulate to the dismissal of this action upon the condition that the parties advise the Court in writing if, for any reason, the parties cannot finalize the settlement documents. Upon receipt of such notice, this conditional dismissal shall be deemed null and void and the action will be restored to the Court's calendar for such further orders as the Court deems appropriate.
